Your primary care practice has a new name

New name – same trusted care

We're reaching out to let you know that your Primary Care practice has a new name:

- Fairfax Family Practice is now Inova Primary Care – Fair Oaks
- Fox Mill Family Practice is now Inova Primary Care – Fox Mill
- Prince William Family Medicine – Gainesville is now Inova Primary Care – Madison Crescent

This name change reflects our broader goal – to create a more seamless, connected experience across all Inova Primary Care locations. We're bringing our teams together under one identity, aimed at making it even easier for you to recognize and access the exceptional care you've come to expect from us.

While the name is new, what matters most stays the same. You'll continue to receive the same compassionate, expert care you rely on – at the same location, with the same easy ways to schedule and access your health information.
